

Hartford County Bar Association

Member Benefits

For 225 years the Hartford County Bar Association has created a connected membership whose shared purpose has been to advance the administration of justice while upholding and improving the professional standards of the legal profession. It has provided a foundation from which its members have shared not only a common vision but a common bond of friendship. The advantages and benefits of membership to the HCBA are many:

Membership opportunities for:

- Networking and socializing within the diverse Hartford County legal community
- Leadership roles within a committee, as a member of our non-profit board of directors or as an officer
- Direct involvement in community service
- Public speaking and participation on "Law Talk" radio program
- Meeting and working with many of Bar Association's active Judicial members
- Having a direct impact upon the improvement of the judicial system

Membership provides access to:

- A redesigned Website with news and information on events and programs
- Continuing Legal Education programs: Led by local practitioners, scholars and guest speakers, HCBA offers an extensive selection of seminars and workshops that help Hartford County lawyers develop practice skills and stay on top of fast-changing legal developments.
- Lawyer Referral Service: Client referral opportunities from HCBA's referral service program
- ISI New England's Health and Disability

Membership = financial savings:
