

The Hartford County Bar Association
presents
The Rules Committee of the Superior Court - the Rulemaking Process and an Update of Likely New Rules
Thursday, April 3, 2014
1 p.m.- 2 p.m.
HCBA Brown Bag Program
Hartford Superior Court,
95 Washington Street, Room TBA,
Hartford, CT 06106

Join the Honorable Marshall K. Berger, Jr. for a lunch-time discussion about Rules Committee procedures, how rules are proposed, opportunities for input from attorneys and the public, and a preview of the rules the Judges of Superior Court will consider at their annual meeting in June. Attendees will learn about:

- How the Rules Committee works and how proposals are developed, including the sources for proposed rules and rule changes
- The timeline for action on proposals for new rules: from submission to the Rules Committee to potential action by the Judges of the Superior Court
- The proposed rules that will be the subject of a public hearing in May and presented to the Judges of the Superior Court in June for review and action

Moderator:

Donald D. Philips, Esq., Co-Chair, HCBA CLE Committee

RSVP to programinfo@hartfordbar.org

by Monday, March 31, 2014

HCBA Member - No cost with HCBA 2014-2015 dues paid

Non-Member - $15

Bring your own lunch!

Hartford County Bar Association
100 Pearl Street, 4th floor
Hartford, Connecticut 06103
Hartford County Bar Association
(860)525-8106 www.hartfordbar.org

